

Women's Bible Study

PSALM 119:25-48 | 1.26.21

1. What do we learn about the writer from this passage? What are his priorities? What does he long for? What does he ask of God?
2. How are we prompted to view the Word of God?
3. What themes do we see in this passage?
4. What verses stand out to us for personal application? Meditate on these verses. Perhaps write them on an index card or sticky note and put it somewhere you'll see it this week.

